Tuesday, October 2. 1705.

From the Paris Gazette, dated October 3.

Madrid, Sept. 17.

THE Enemy, from their Arrival before Barcelona to the 9th Instant, had done nothing but get together Fascines and make other Preparations for raising Batteries. They landed about 40 Pieces of Cannon, of which only 17 were upon Carriages, and some are light Pieces. To draw their Artillery, they make use of 200 Mules that they brought with them, and of some others which they found in the Country. They have built 2 small Forts in sight of the Place, and to the 9th had form'd no Attack. They have sent Detachments to open Places that could make no Resistance. The Rebels of the Plain of Vich have made several Incursions into the Country: And use their principal Endeavours to stop Couriers, and the carrying of Provisions into Barcelona. The 4th it blew so hard, that the greatest Part of the Enemy's Fleet stood out to Sea, and if Deserters may be credited it was propos'd that the Forces should be put on board again, lest the hard Weather should continue, and lest the Fleet should suffer Damage the Season being so far advanc'd: But that the Rebels of Vich obtain'd by their earnest Remonstrances that this Resolution was forborn to be executed, which Affair had bred Conteits between the Generals. We hear the number of those Rebels is not encreas'd, and that even the Enemy begin to place less Confidence in them, than upon the Promises of the Prince of Darmstadt they did at first, finding there is no Person of Note among them. On the contrary, the Nobility and Gentry of the Country and those of the Town of Barcelona, have given Proofs of their Loyalty, having set up a Standard for the drawing together the Gentlemen into one Body consisting of 14 Companies or Troops. The Number of Deserters from the Enemy's Camp is so great, that in 3 Days 76 were counted, tho' the Passages are carefully guarded. According to their Report, all their Troops consisted of about 8 or 9000 Men, but they grow fewer daily by sickness. They write from Valencia the 9th of this Month, that Major General Don Luis de Zuniga having drawn together the regular Troops, and Militia of the Country, had attack'd the Posts of Molinet, Pego, and Puerto de Sagra, in which the Enemy had put 400 Men; and after some Resistance took them, those that defended them surrendering, and the Rebels imploring Pardon. The Arms the English and Dutch had given them were taken from them, among the rest 400 Musquets. These Posts will serve to shut up the closer the Rebels that remain in Denia. Don Joseph de Salazar Lieutenant General, has since joyn'd Don Luis de Zuniga with a Detachment of some Horse of the King's Guards and other Troops, who 'tis hop'd will in a short Time force the Rebels to beg Quarter, after which the said Lieutenant General will proceed to Catalonia.

From the Paris Letter, dated October 2.

Paris Octob. 2. Letters from Madrid tell us Monsieur du Casse was arriv'd there from Cadix, to receive his last Instructions touching the Departure of the Gallies. The Marshal de Theffe sent a Courier to the Court of Spain, who from thence came to our Court; but the News he brings not being made publick, and he having been presently dispatched back again, 'tis believed he brought only an Account of some Military Dispositions that Marshal had made. The Marquis de Quinson who commands in Rouffillon, has sent a particular Account of what pass'd in the Attack of the outmost Intrenchments of Montjoui, the Substance of which is as follows. A Woman having discover'd by a Letter the Conspiracy form'd by the Major and the Miquelets that were garrison'd in the Fort, to throw down their Arms at the Approach of the Enemy and yield the Place to them; and having inform'd the Viceroy of it, the Viceroy went into the Fort with a certain Number of Men on some specious Pretence, seiz'd the Major and caus'd him to be hang'd immediately, imprison'd Part of the Miquelets, and chang'd the whole Garrison. The Enemy who knew nothing of what he had done, advancing at the Hour agreed, were surpris'd to meet with the Resistance that was made. The Marquis d' Usson Lieutenant General of the King's Armies, Commandeur of the Order of Knighthood of St. Louis, and Governour of the County of Nice, having been indisposed Three Months, and being transported from Villa Franca to Marseilles, in one of the King's Gallies, died there the 25th of last Month.

Paris, Oct. 3. A Courier arriv'd the 25th in the Evening from Perpignan, and reported Advice was come to Perpignan from Gironne, that on the 16th of last Month, the Enemy had attack'd with their best Troops an Out-work of the Fort of Monjoui, situate within Cannon-shot of Barcelona, and that the Prince of Darmstadt was kill'd.

Fontainebleau, Oct. 2. The 30th of last Month the Count de Toulouse Admiral of France arriv'd here from Toulon.

From the Leiden Gazette, Octob. 6.

Genoa, Sep. 20. Yesterday Morning an English and a Dutch Ship arriv'd here. The first came from before Barcelona the 8th of this Month, and brought Letters from King Charles III. for the Emperor, the Queen of England, the States-General, and the Duke of Savoy, which have been forwarded by several Couriers. The other left Barcelona the 10th. The Crews of both these Ships agree in reporting, That about 20000 Catalonians well arm'd, had declar'd for King Charles the III. had joyn'd the Forces the Allies had landed, and brought in Provisions in abundance for them; that afterwards they secur'd all the Avenues of Barcelona; that the Viceroy of Catalonia, who is in the Place, seem'd resolv'd to defend it, and had caus'd 30 or 40 Cannon Shot to be made at the Troops of the Allies on their Approach to invest it; that the latter were making all Necessary Preparations to besiege it in Form; and that all the Nobility or Gentry of the Town that were abroad in the Country adjacent when it was invested, had declar'd for King Charles III.

From the Amst. Cour. and Leid. Gaz. dated Oct. 6

Vienna, Sept. 23. The 20th Monsieur Nadausti arriv'd

riv'd post here, with Passports from Prince Ragotski for the Earl of Sunderland and Monsieur van Almelo, Envoys extraordinary of England and Holland: But it does not appear they will let out for Hungary very speedily; for the Imperialists are desirous, before they enter upon a Negotiation with the Malecontents, to see the Success of General Herbeville's Expedition; and on the other side the Hungarians declare they will not agree to a Suspension of Arms till our Troops are all march'd back over the Danube again; which the Imperialists will not hear of, and the Army advances daily towards the Tibiscus in the upper Hungary. Yesterday Count Palfi Ban of Croatia arriv'd here, with the News that the said Army is advanc'd so far that 'tis highly probable the Design they have in View will be executed. Some are of Opinion however, that General Herbeville will meet with more Resistance than he expects from the Body of Troops commanded by Prince Ragotski, encamp'd on the Tibiscus near Zolnoch.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated October 6.

From the Camp of the Imperialists at Wiertheim, Sept. 28. We found in Drusenheim 400 Sacks of Meal, 4 small Pieces of Cannon, 400 Musquets, and 12 Quintals of Powder. The Prince of Baden has appointed the Generals Thungen, Erfa, and Arnheim, to command the Siege of Haguenau, which was begun to day. The Prussian, Saxon, and Wirtemberg Foot, with 20 Squadrons of Horse, are employ'd in it. 'Tis talk'd that after the taking of this Place, some Troops will be detach'd to possess themselves of Hombourg and Bleicassell. The Enemies Army under the Marshal de Villars, continues in their former Camp within a League of ours.

Amsterdam, Octob. 5. The Directors of our East-India Company have receiv'd Advice that 5 Ships, being the last they expected from the East-Indies, are arriv'd safe in the Texel.

Bristol, Sept. 23 On Thursday Morning arriv'd here a Ship in 7 Weeks from Barbadoes, the Master says the Fleet from thence was to sail the 6th of this Month under Convoy of 2 Men of War. Yesterday here arriv'd 16 Sail of Ships, being our Fleet from Virginia, but last from Kinsale: The Speedwel Man of War Captain Cummoek Commander came out with this Virginia Fleet, and saw them all above the Island of Lundy clear from Danger.

Falmouth, Sept. 27. Yesterday was sent in here as Prize the La Teresa Privateer of St. Malo of 14 Guns and 60 Men, by Her Majesty's Ship the Triton, taken 8 Days since about 40 Leagues to the Westward of Scilly.

Dartmouth, Sept. 28. This Day came in here a Ship of Lyme from Virginia, but last from Ireland: The rest of the Fleet for London, &c. pass'd by this Day under Convoy of 7 Men of War.
